

FRANCISAN BROTHERS ADRAA AGRICULTURE COLLEGE

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

PROPOSED CONSTRUCTION OF 1 NO. HOSTEL BLOCK AT FRANCISAN BROTHERS ADRAA AGRICULTURE COLLEGE

Adraa Agriculture College (AAC) is a college owned and managed by the Franciscan Brothers, a religious congregation in the Catholic Church under the Catholic Diocese of Nebbi, in Uganda. The purpose of the college is to educate and train people from rural communities in Uganda, South Sudan and North East Democratic Republic of Congo with the aim of improving capacities and capabilities so that rural people will be able to use available natural resources to achieve sustainable livelihoods for themselves, their families and their communities.

AAC is seeking to prequalify contractors for the proposed construction of a new hostel block at the campus in Adraa.

Eligible building contractors registered with the relevant authorities are hereby invited to submit their Expression of Interest (EOI) for prequalification. Shortlisted contractors will be subsequently invited to tender for the works.

The EOI must be accompanied by the following: -

- a. Company profile;
- b. Certified copies of Certificates of Registration with the relevant authorities;
- c. Total monetary value of Contract Works performed for each of the last three years;
- d. Names and contact details of clients for whom works were undertaken, including completion certificates;
- e. Major items of construction equipment owned;
- f. Qualifications and experience of key personnel;
- g. Authority to seek references from bankers and clients;
- h. An indication of the principal place of business.

Interested contractors are requested to send their EOIs in hard-copy and in soft copy via email to the following address: -
